

Kimberly A. Elms, President/CEO & Ex-officio Board Member

Kimberly Elms has led Elms Family and Community Services since its formation in January of 2018. Mrs. Elms has more than 25 years of experience leading business operations, financial, human resources, policy and compliance management functions. She served in higher education, leading institutional fiscal affairs for a large majority of her career, prior to transitioning to a human services/nonprofit sector. She has a passion for serving the community and helping others to pursue their goals and dreams in life.

Mrs. Elms holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Management with a concentration in Human Resources and Labor Relations from Wayne State University.

In addition to her current role at Elms Family and Community Services, Mrs. Elms leads a business and consulting entity, which serves minority-owned, women-owned and veteran owned small businesses. She's engaged in varying community and parent committees in K-12 public schools and currently serves as a member of several community coalitions and a local social/educational chapter. Mrs. Elms is also a parent advocate for youth with special needs.

Fun Fact: Mrs. Elms enjoys binge-watching her favorite television series (Law & Order SVU, Chicago PD, and Chicago Fire) on weekends. She also enjoys decorating for holidays and hosting family gatherings with her loved ones.

Mrs. Elms aims to take the organization to the next level by increasing its capacity, taking a holistic approach to serving those in the community who are greatest in need of support and expanding the organization's reach across the Detroit Metro Area.
